Sustain, O God, all who labor and toil in field, factory, home, or office, that their work may have purpose. Give hope to the unemployed, that they can soon offer their talents in fulfilling work. Lord, in your mercy,

Inspire, O God, the leaders of all nations to seek justice for the inhabitants of the world. Give a spirit of generosity to those who are wealthy, enabling them to share the abundance of their riches with the poor. Lord, in your mercy,

Provide peace, O God, to those whose days are filled with pain: the poor, the hungry, the ill (especially), that they may not give up their hearts to despair. Lord, in your mercy,

Encourage this congregation, O God, to set our minds on things that are above, so we may be rich toward God and loving toward others. Lord, in your mercy,

Here other intercessions may be offered.

We give thanks, O God, for those who have left us a legacy of faith, wisdom, and knowledge (especially). Keep us steadfast in that faith until we join them in glory. Lord, in your mercy,

Into your hands, gracious God, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy; through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

Amen.
